

Mission

- Favour and promote the integration of young people with an autism spectrum disorders in martial arts leisure sportsmen activities.
- more specifically: develop and forward an educational method of training adapted to people with specific needs;
- Promote by means of trainings, workshops and conferences, adapted martial arts as an adequate physical activity for people with an autism spectrum disorders;
- Promote by means of trainings, workshops and conferences, the benefactions of the practice of the martial arts adapted for motricity, coordination, energy but also for its socialization, empathy and self-respect;
- Establish a partnership with other bodies or associations dedicated to the education, leisure activities, to sports or autism in an optics of exchange and dialogue on the integration of young people in the practice of adapted martial arts;

Favour the emergence in the vocation of adapted martial arts education with various participants involved with the people with specific needs;

- Integrate and accompany young students of adapted martial arts in order to prepare them to be, in their turn, future trainers;
- Collaborate with schools in order to fight against dropping out of school and bullying amongst young people.
- Receive gifts, Legacy and other contributions of the same nature in cash, in securities or real estate, administer such gifts, Legacies and contributions; organize campaigns of subscriptions with the aim of raising funds for charitable purposes.